

Inter-counties Fell Running Championships 2010

The 2010 Inter-counties Fell Running championships were held on Saturday, 22 May in North Wales in conjunction with the Lletty Fell race, near Denbigh, over 9 miles and 3000 feet of climbing on a rather warm day.

There was individual success for a Cheshire athlete, Olivia Walwyn, who was third female individual overall in 1:26:58, a minute behind the female winner, and led the Cheshire team of Laura Bostock (1:58:44) and Clare Riley (2:00:07) to 9th team place. On the men's side, the Cheshire team was 15th with Tom Bush 35th overall (1:25:02), Daniel Chan 50th (1:28:49), Martin Cliff 72nd (1:34:15) and Jeff Kettle 100th in 1:40:40. Over 200 runners completed the race which also included the first of the UKA McCains Mountain Running series for 2010.

Full results are on www.race-results.co.uk

John Driscoll