

2022 John Young Award

Each year the Cheshire County Athletics Association presents the John Young Award to one or more individuals who have made a significant contribution to athletics in the County.

This year, for the first time, the award was presented to a family - Neil, Debbie, Emma and Olivia Fowler. The Fowlers make a huge contribution to athletics as athletes, coaches, officials and in a variety of other roles at County and Club level.

At the County T&F Championships Neil, Emma and Olivia between them took part in 17 events! Neil and Emma are also qualified officials and worked as field judges during their breaks from competition. Meanwhile, Debbie was Chief Timekeeper on Saturday at the Cheshire T&F Championships and a member of the timekeeping team on Sunday.

The Fowlers also support Crewe and Nantwich AC as athletes, coaches, officials and in other roles such as team management and welfare. All year round they make a huge commitment to the sport of athletics, bringing them personal success and enjoyment and also supporting and enabling other to enjoy the sport.

The Fowler family are deserving recipients of the John Young Award for services to athletics in Cheshire.

